

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

WWF Nepal, the global conservation organization leading international efforts for a living planet seeks applications from qualified Nepali candidates for the following full time position for Hariyo Ban, a 5 year USAID funded project.

If you think you are an achiever and willing to work within a diverse team in a multicultural environment with commitment and passion for what you believe in, you are highly encouraged to apply.

1. MANAGER - FINANCE AND COMPLIANCE, Hariyo Ban Program

Major Responsibilities: The Manager Finance and Compliance Hariyo Ban Program, provides financial and administrative support to the Hariyo Ban Program and its staff based at Kathmandu and other field offices in Nepal. S/he will be responsible for all budgeting and financial management, accounting, revenue contracts management, contracting, long-range planning and general administration for the assigned program.

This position will be responsible for meeting performance measures as outlined in the program operations standards. Oversight of program budget and financial management helps to ensure compliance with WWF policies and ensures sound management of WWF revenues used toward accomplishing WWF's mission

Qualifications: Master's degree in finance and accounting with eight years of experience in a similar position is required of which 3 years' experience of similar USAID funded project is essential. Experience managing staff is also essential.

Interested applicants are requested to download the application form on the below mentioned website and send the same with an application to the email address below by May 9, 2012. Please mention the position you are applying as the subject. Emails without an application letter and complete application will not be entertained. Only short listed candidates will be informed. Detailed TOR for the above mentioned position can be downloaded from our website.

Website: <https://www.wwfnepal.org>

Email: hr@wwfnepal.org

*WWF is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.
Please join us in our mission to save life on Earth.*